Dear Parents and Carers

RE: School closure to all pupils on Tuesday 5th January

Further to my earlier letter, as you are no doubt aware, Boris Johnson has just announced the closure of schools to most pupils until the February half term.

To allow the staff time to prepare for wider remote learning and organise the provision for the groups of pupils who are able to continue their learning in school, the school will close tomorrow for all pupils.

During the course of Tuesday, we will issue further information, in order to establish the above groups. Once organised, we will then inform you of arrangements from Wednesday onwards.

As you will appreciate, we have only just received this information. I thank you in anticipation of your patience, understanding and continued support as we work together to support our children.

Yours sincerely

Paul Brockless
